MUSIC FOR WORSHIP

Hello, everyone, and welcome to our Spring 2025 choral catalog!

The publishing industry works roughly a year ahead of time. As I'm writing these words, it's early August, school is about to start, and I'm yearning for the cooler temperatures of fall. In fact, as soon as I finish writing this article, I'm ordering fall music for my church choir—all from The Lorenz Corporation, of course!

It's been a busy summer, and, over the past few months, I've had the opportunity to lead reading sessions at various events across the country. If you've not been to a reading session recently, I encourage you to attend one soon. After all, remarkable things can happen when God's children come together and sing. Yes, I know the purpose of a reading session is for publishers to sell music, but trust me, worship happens during these sessions as well. Life-changing, God-honoring worship.

Why am I telling you this? Because, during the summer reading sessions I attended, I was struck once again by the power of choral music, and particularly by the power of sacred choral music.

We know that church choirs have been challenged in recent decades by the advent of contemporary worship. Don't get me wrong: I love contemporary worship. I lead it at my church, and I honestly can't imagine my life without it. However, I also believe that if every churchgoer in America experienced the various sessions I experienced this summer, they wouldn't be as quick to dismiss traditional choirs as old-fashioned or irrelevant. When 30, 40, 50 (or 350!) singers come together to magnify God's name, it creates a sound, and a community, like none other. Therefore, be encouraged, because what you do is important, and the musical beauty you share with your congregation is vital.

As I close, let me once again thank every composer, lyricist, arranger, and orchestrator represented in this catalog, as well as the incredible folks who work behind the scenes at our Dayton offices. Lorenz wouldn't exist without them.

I also want to thank you, our customers, for continuing to look to us for your musical needs. Within the following pages, we hope you'll find resources that inspire, encourage, and delight you, and we pray for God's richest blessings on you and your ministries as you begin preparing for the upcoming spring season.

Sincerely,

Brad Nix

Not My Will, But Yours

Reflections on the Sacrifice of Christ

Lloyd Larson

"Not my will, but Yours." These solemn words have echoed through the ages as Jesus embraced the will of Almighty God on the night before His crucifixion. Beginning shortly after the "hosannas" of Palm Sunday and concluding just before the "alleluias" of Easter Sunday, this brief Holy Week work from composer Lloyd Larson retells the last hours of our Lord's earthly journey to remind us that Christ chose to walk the painful path of a criminal's execution for our redemption.

Intended to be a versatile resource suitable for use in Maundy Thursday and/or Good Friday worship services, it is an excellent selection for choirs of any size thanks in part to its beautifully written and supportive piano accompaniment. An optional chamber orchestration by Ed Hogan for flute, clarinet, horn, violin, and cello is also available. Finally, for those wishing to expand this work into a complete Easter presentation, a list of complementary Palm Sunday and/or Easter Sunday anthems is also included.

The Resurrection of the Messiah

Rose Aspinall

Mary McDonald

The resurrection of Jesus changed the world and continues to change the world today. Jesus! The Resurrection of the Messiah tells the intimate story of the grief, the fear, the hope, the love, the tenderness, and the longing of God for His children expressed through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Mary McDonald and Rose Aspinall combined their talents to create a compelling musical that will take you through the emotions of the Triumphal Entry, the raising of Lazarus, the Last Supper, the moment in the garden when Jesus is arrested, the Crucifixion, and finally to the joyous Resurrection. This work may be programmed in its entirety or presented in segments during Palm Sunday, Holy Week, and Resurrection Sunday worship settings. It may be done with choir and piano alone or can include the optional orchestrations created by Michael Lawrence and Ed Hogan.

This powerful worship tool is an inspiring reminder of the life-changing impact of this Deliverer, Redeemer, and Savior...Jesus!

CHORAL MUSIC FOR WORSHIP

Hey guys—Jay Rouse here.

We have a ton of new anthems from Medallion Music, and I can't wait to share them with you. This is a truly power-packed release! There's definitely something for everyone. Here's the scoop on what Medallion has coming your way for Spring 2025:

Mary McDonald brings us three brand new anthems. First is "Let It Be Jesus," a beautiful, modern worship, Passion and Christy Nockels song. Mary is at her best with "Amazing Love," a skillful pairing of the classic "And Can It Be" lyric with the "Londonderry Air" melody. Finally, perfect for Easter is a masterful setting of the timeless spiritual "Were You There?"

Cliff Duren created a ready-to-sing arrangement of the hugely popular We the Kingdom song, "Jesus Does." Solo- or duet-led on the verses, your choir gets a chance to open up and really sing on the choruses. He also shares an original song that serves as a beautiful reminder that Christ is the eternal One, who was and is "Perfectly Faithful." Coming together on Sunday morning, I'm always looking for ways to incorporate hymnody. "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" is a classic, and Cliff has created a setting that stays true to the original but feels modern and appropriate for today.

Your church will immediately know and engage with the Chris McClarney song "Speak to the Mountains," and your choir will love what Phil Nitz has done with the arrangement. "That's the Power" from Hillsong Worship is another song you're going to want to add to your spring lineup. The chorus (which will likely be familiar to you) gets deep in your soul and hangs on!

David Wise, one of the freshest new arrangers (though he's not really new; he's been around a while doing a million different music-related things), has a way of setting songs for choir that just draws you in. His latest is "I Speak Jesus." I know you think you know what this arrangement will be, but trust me, he takes it to a new level. "Come Jesus Come," the popular CeCe Winans worship song, is the second of three from David. This song just works. The "Cross Medley" is a stirring setting of three classic Cross-centered hymns, weaved together in a way that reminds you of your heritage and the songs of your childhood while drawing you to the foot of the Cross and back to the Savior. Check it out for Easter.

Richie Kingsmore has arranged a classic Rebecca Peck song from the PraiseGathering Music Group, "Even in the Valley." This is a true ministry song that serves as a powerful statement... "Even in the valley, God is good." Bryan Sharpe knows how to write for a cappella voices. Here, he's arranged the classic hymn "Jesus Paid It All" and included the modern worship chorus, "O Praise the One." If your choir isn't singing a cappella, this is a good place to start.

I also have a couple of pieces in this release. "That's My King"—an infectious CeCe Winans song—will bring your church to their feet. So fun! "Isn't the Name" has long been a favorite song of mine. It comes from the Covenant Worship camp and is a worship song in the truest form of the word. "Build Your Church" is a multi-gen arrangement birthed out of my home congregation. We didn't write the song, but it's such a powerful experience to hear kids—the future of the church—singing, "Upon this rock You build Your church and the gates of hell will not prevail!" Powerful! "The Joy" comes from The Belonging Co. Infectious praise and worship—it's a ton of fun!

I feel so strongly about this music. I hope you hear my heart and know that it's such a privilege to partner with you and create tools that help you weekly lead your church into the presence of God. You are loved and lifted up.

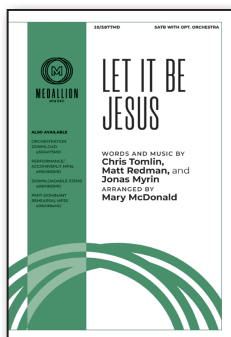

Blessings, friends!
