The King Shall Come

p. 62

Details of this hymn are sketchy, except that Scottish hymnist John Brownlie translated the anonymous Greek text, which has been set to at least three tunes including this one by English composer Richard Farrant. Edward Broughton's quiet setting reaches us in time for Christ the King Sunday, just before Advent.

Cradle Song

p. 64

Steven Scott's Christmas lullaby is a lovely way to end this issue, or enhance your Advent worship, especially if the melody is played on the suggested oboe stop or your sweetest substitute registration.
